THE OFFICE FOR UNEXPECTED SOLUTIONS Decision · VOL 2026/51890

Decision

REFERENCE NUMBER	DATE	CASE OFFICER	OUTCOME
VOL 2026/51890	2026-11-04	Absurdimo	Referred

REFERRED 2026-11-04

The Office has examined the application and found that the applicant displays a moderate to severe need for slight unease, together with a need for stillness lasting at least one 125th of a second.

The applicant has proposed that the document “Leaf on the door” be hung in the Office’s waiting room. The proposal has been referred to the facilities management unit.

The applicant has described the matter with the word “rabbit”. The word has given rise to a special assessment.

The word has been assessed as falling outside the Office’s ordinary activities. The applicant’s need for slight unease has been assessed as considerable.

The circle is assessed as meticulous.

The Office has found that the case cannot be examined in the ordinary manner. The case is referred to Absurdimo, which has enclosed a document. The Office further encloses two documents for information.

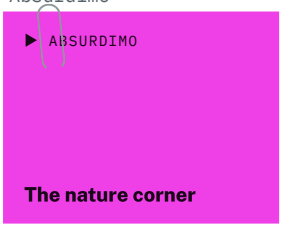

The applicant’s circle, registered

This decision has been made pursuant to section 12 of the Office’s Regulations (VOL 2026:1) on Unexpected Solutions.

ENCLOSURES

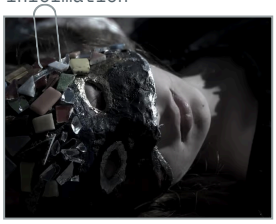

Enclosure 1 · From Absurdimo

The nature corner

Absurdimo · year not established

Enclosure 2 · For information

The mosaic mask

Nordic fairy tale, 2010

Enclosure 3 · For information

Armenian College, Kolkata

Kolkata, 2010

Enclosure 4 · Windfall

The rose

Allocated at random under the Office’s regulations on unexpected solutions.

How to appeal. This decision may be appealed. An appeal is lodged by the applicant pressing the button Appeal the decision. The Office will then reconsider the decision forthwith and without further inquiry.

The decision is held in the register at the address `http://127.0.0.1:4180/en/#decision-Hj0u9yBA4HRgMrj6HxAG4zkwsTE0uinCyst0lLkPHogqdDFHUlXDXPTXNfFi9k1gvarSpGs8w04xAvIxQ3U_XKU`

Processing is requested by email or telephone.

EMAIL [to be entered in content/verket.md] TELEPHONE [to be entered in content/verket.md]
QUOTE VOL 2026/51890